TO START DRIVE AGAINST WIDE OPEN SABBATH

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY CONSIDERING MOVEMENT FOR CLOSE OBSERVANCE

CHURCH MEMBERS OF ALL FAITHS ASKED TO TRY TO PREVENT SUNDAY AMUSEMENTS

(By United Press)

Winona Lake, Ind., May 19—A concerted drive for Sunday blue laws and a move to check wide open Sabbath agitation was started today.

Church members of all creeds and faiths were asked to fight the "million dollar propaganda against our Christian Sabbath and to urge civil authorities to prohibit Sunday amusements." The blue law question was thrown before the Presbyterian general assembly when the sessions opened here today.

"The battle ground of the churches is on the field of Christian Sabbaths.

"We have already warned the leading ministers of the country that the most dangerous movement against the American Sunday in fifty years is now in progress. This should stir the blood of every American patriot and certainly every American Christian.

"Close up the movie theatre. Shut the gate of the ball park. Lock the doors of business and the big paramount problems of the church will be on their way to solution," the Christian Sabbath committee stated in a report to the conference.

Primarily his handling of the reparations negotiatons with Germany was questioned. The Upper Silesian dispute with Great Britain also entered the discussion.

Briand went to the chamber early and asked that the deputies begin their interpellations. Andre Tardieu, former high commissioner to the United States, was the first to respond. He demanded an explanation of Briand's action in permitting reduction of the German reparations, comparing the original sum of fifty-six billion with the thirty-three billion which Germany finally agreed to pay.

He also criticized the premier for bargaining with Germany.

SILESIAN QUESTION MAY SEVER ALLIES

GREAT BRITAIN WARNS FRANCE SHE WILL OBJECT TO OCCUPATION OF RUHR DIST.

(By United Press)

Paris, May 19—Great Britain has warned France that she will seriously object to French occupation of the Ruhr valley in event Germany invades Upper Silesia, it was learned today.

The French foreign office replied that it could make no promises.

The British charge d'affairs here yesterday asked whether France had any intention of occupying the Ruhr in case the Germans entered Upper Silesia to proceed against Polish insurgents there.

Great Britain, it was said, would seriously object to any such action by France. The foreign office replied to France it would be unable to ignore any contingency in the occupation of the Ruhr. It was unable to make any promises it said.

Allies Protest Unorganized Bands Entering Silesia.

Paris, May 19—This morning Great Britain in the Upper Silesian controversy with the French government, sent a note to Berlin protesting against entrance of unorganized German bands into Silesia.

The note intimated that Germany should close her frontier.

Press Continues to Support George

London, May 19—Premier Lloyd George again gained the support of the British press today in his new warning to France and Poland in the Silesian dispute.

With the exception of the Post which was violently antagonistic to the premier, London newspapers heartily approved his assertion that "the child of the treaty will not be allowed to break crockery with impunity."

It was learned authoritatively that so far as Silesia is concerned, British official dominion has interpreted the spirit rather than the language of the Versailles treaty. Lloyd George and others consider the Franco-Polish interpretation as grossly unfair. Briand, it was said, will not propose a boundary line for the Germans and Polish in Upper Silesia but will rely on the fairness and knowledge of the allied plebescite commission to arrange a compromise which will distribute the area equitably.

Briand Continues to Defy George

Paris, May 19—Premier Briand, of France, today reiterated his statement of Saturday flinging down the gauntlet to Great Britain.

"I stand on what I said Saturday," he declared after reading Premier Lloyd George's warning of yesterday.

"There is nothing in the Versailles treaty saying the Germans will get the rich mining district of Upper Silesia, and Poland will get the remainder," Briand declared in his statement.

The Franco-British war of words continued today.

Each backed by a regiment of newspapers, the premiers of the two nations threw a heavy fire of statements and opinions on the proper division of Upper Silesia between Germany and Poland.

Premier Lloyd George's offensive of yesterday, when he reiterated his assertion that Germany had as much right as Poland to invade Silesia was met by a prompt counter attack.

"It is a fit of ill temper," Premier Briand declared caustically.

France practically snatched the Silesian situation out of Brtains hands today with a note to Britain demanding that unorganized bands of Germans be kept out of Silesia. Britain which has protested against France's "benevolent neutrality" with the Polish insurgent invasion in Upper Silesia, was not consulted.

French leaders want Poland to have the rich section of Upper Silesia. The British declare they want that region partitioned according to the recent plebescite return. They fear Polands position would hurt the industries there and would rob Germany of one of her richest assets in paying her indemnity to the allies.

Upper Silesia, meanwhile lies starving. Germany controls the railroads, and refuses to send in supplies to support the invading Poles. Sporadic fighting has occurred, but the region for the most part was quiet with Polish insurgents holding a line which includes the rich portion of the district.

CHIEF JUSTICE WHITE DIED EARLY THIS MORNING

HAS SERVED 27 YEARS ON BENCH —FUNERAL SATURDAY—HARDING WILL ATTEND

(United Press)

Washington, May 19—Chief Justice White of the United States supreme court died here at 2 a. m.

The chief justice did not arouse from the coma into which he sank late Tuesday after an operation the preceding Friday.

Mrs. White and two nieces, Mrs. Anne Montgomery and Miss Mary Broussard, were at his bedside when he passed away. A Catholic priest was present also. Justice White was 76 years old. For more than 27 years he served on the supreme court and has been chief justice since 1910.

His death cast a pall of sorrow over official Washington. He was one of the best loved men in public life. In accordance with the oft-expressed wish the body of the chief justice will be laid to rest without the stately ceremonies usually accorded a high government official.

Private funeral services which will be attended by President Harding, members of the cabinet, congressmen and other officials will be held in St. Matthews Catholic church at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The burial which will also be private will be in a cemetery here.

Taft Thought to be White's Successor

Talk of a successor to Chief Justice White of the supreme court, today centered on Wm. Howard Taft, former president.

At the same time the impression prevailed that President Harding would be in no hurry about naming a new justice since he has five months in which to act.

The court takes a summer recess in June and does not convene until October.

After scooping up all of the money in sight—about $10,000—they fled. As the automobile was speeding down the street Detective Sergeant Wm. Russell who knew nothing of the robbery, called for the automobile to halt. It did not stop. Russell commandeered a passing automobile and gave chase emptying his revolver at the bandits.

The robbers' machine turned over as they rounded a corner. The fourth robber started to run. Russell wounded Wm. Dunigan and captured two others. The fourth man held up another automobile and made his escape in it. The loot was found in the overturned machine.

Rainmaker Hatfield Is Pure Bunk, Say Weather Officials

(United Press)

Hatfield's tank of chemicals erected at Chappice near Medicine Hat, Alberta, has not caused a drop more of rain than what would have fallen naturally, they said. Heavy snow last winter may make the farmer believe that they will get too much moisture. They have asked Hatfield to "turn off the rain," according to reports.

THE KAISER AND A BLADE OF GRASS

(By United Press)

Berlin—(By Mail)—This is a little story concerning the kaiser, tapestry, court architects and blades of grass.

It came about during the reign of Wilhelm II that the monarch wanted his castle in Koenigswusterhausen newly outfitted. He took a fastidious personal interest in the decorations and furnishings. Finally all was well except the tapestry of his work room.

Wilhelm called in the court architects to decide the exact shade of the tapestry; green, it must be, he had decided, but just what sort of a green he did not know. The court architects waited upon his Majesty, but his Majesty was attending a Kiel review.

The following day, they were surprised to get from him a package. Layers of paper and cotton; then more layers! Then finally—a blade of grass. His Majesty commanded that the tapestry be the color of this blade, piucked in Kiel. But, the green had faded from the blade in its warm packing.

So the architects secretly journeyed to Kiel to study the green of the grass. When the kaiser finally returned, he was pleased at the exactitude wherewith his orders had been followed.

RAIL LABOR BOARD EXPECTS TO CUT PAY OF ALL EMPLOYEES

REDUCTION OF WAGES OF UNSKILLED LABOR WILL BE MADE BASIS OF CUT

Chicago, May 19—The general reduction of wages for unskilled railroad employees, effective July 1, which was forecast by the railroad labor board in an announcement, will be made the basis of reductions extending to all classes of railroad labor, it was understood today.

Of the scores of railroads whose applications for wage cuts are pending before the board, only the Chicago Great Western, the Chicago & Alton, and a few others, asked that the reductions be extended to all classes of employees.

Provision was made by the board for the filing of other wage reduction appeals up to June 6, and these will be decided, the announcement said, to take effect also on July 1. It is believed others of the Class A roads will amend their applications to include shop, train service and other classes of employees.

The June 1 decision, it was announced, would cover applications filed prior to April 18, and those filed since will be decided June 6, all to take effect July 1.

Nearly half of the 180 Class A roads in the country filed their disputes in time to have them docketed before April 18, but only a few asked that the wage decreases be applied to all classes.

The railroad labor board also announced a new and comprehensive classification of railroad labor to be used as the basis for the collection of data for the settlement of disputes that may come before the board in the future. The new classification, the board announced, has been filed with the interstate commerce commission and became effective April 18.

Under the classification the positions on steam railroads are grouped in 17 major services, the services are subdivided into 119 groups and within the groups are distinctive class titles and separate grades.

WIN OR LOSE, CARPENTIER WILL KEEP ON FIGHTING

HENRY FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, May 19—Georges Carpentier will not retire from the ring after his fight with Dempsey for the world's championship, Francois Descamps, his manager, said here today.

"Carpentier first considered retirement from the ring after the battle of his life, but he has changed his mind," his manager and trainer said.

"Win or lose, Georges will continue to meet all comers from either side of the water. He will maintain his training camp at La Guerche (a suburb of Paris) making his home in Paris as at present.

"If he wins, he will defend the world's title against all challengers. If he loses, he will defend his present title as light heavyweight champion of the world."

Shortly after Carpentier was married it was announced by the Frenchman that Mme. Carpentier didn't like the idea of having her husband knocked around by strange men and that he would retire from the ring after meeting Dempsey.

This was considerd a very logical step, since it was thought that Carpentier, being in no need of remuneration from his ring activities, was merely seeking glory and that he would win no prestige by losing to Dempsey.

Cynics on this side of the water wailed—"If he wins, of course, he will retire. The title will be put on cold storage in Paris with the national relics and it will never be fought for in his day."

Public opinion more than anything else forced Carpentier to waive the objections of his wife and remain in the ring, according to Descamps.

"When the announcement of his retirement was made in France, his countrymen raised such a chorus of protest that he was forced to retract his statements.

"Friends of Georges said it would be a shame for him to cut his career short just when he was in his prime for sentimental reasons. They also pointed out to him that he belonged to his country and that he had his nation to consider more than himself. So, all in all, Carpentier has decided to stay in the ring. He will have time to take care of his extensive business enterprises between fights.

"Although he was sincere in his intentions to quit the game, I felt all along that he would be unable to do it as he has made boxing his life's work. He has been in the ring since he was fourteen years of age and the game has worked such a fascination on him that perhaps he will never completely lose it."

Frank Yellow, a section hand on the Soo line, was lodged in the county jail at Brainerd and upon the death of Castle has now been charged with first degree murder.

Castle was 22 years old and had lived in Ironton the past year and a half Yellow, it is alleged, was in a fight with another man, and Castle, so it is alleged, endeavored to quiet the combatants and then got a death wound himself

MEANING OF THE DAY

Memorial Day Should be Devoted to Paying Honor to Those Who Sacrificed

Decoration Day!

What does it mean?

How are the citizens of Brainerd intending to observe it? Is it a day for revelry or for dedication? Is it a time for pleasure-seeking or for paying due honor to those who died that we might be spared from the calamaties which threatened?

According to the way in which we answer these questions are we likely to spend the day

Representatives of various organizations in the city of Brainerd are seeking to have the day observed as it ought to be.

All ex-service men are expected to be out in the morning for the march to the cemetery and, we believe, most of those who saw service will be in that march. They remember the days when danger threatened them and they are ready to do honor to those of their comrades who paid their last full measure of devotion. They will march in honor of those who lie on foreign soil and of those whose bodies now lie in our own cemetery—Evergreen. During the short period since the war ended a number of service men have met death in various ways and now lie buried in our local cemetery. Their comrades will pay them due honor on Decoration Day.

There is no need to add that the members of the Grand Army of the Republic will be in that march, for each year in ever diminishing numbers, they have been true to those comrades who have answered "Adsum" to the last roll call.

Men who served in the Spanish-American war will be in that march in honor of those who marched with them in those days and in honor of those who served in other ways.

And the citizens of Brainerd are not going to fail to pay tribute to the memory of the men who served them in three wars. They marched to death for their country, and their fellow citizens for whom they went forth now feel an obligation to march a few steps, from the business section to the cemetery, in their honor.

What does Decoration Day mean to the citizens of Brainerd? This question will be answered by the citizens on the morning of May 30th. The service men of three wars hope that it will be a day in which the citizens of this city pay due honor to their dead.

FRED ERRINGTON,
Publicity Committee for Ex-Service Men.

FROST DAMAGE COMPUTED

Fruits Damaged, Garden Stuff Unable to Survive, Strawberries are Frosted

With the government thermometer registering 77 at noon Thursday, it almost seems like saddest kind of irony to think that on May 15 and 16 below freezing temperature was recorded which did considerable frost damage.

The full damage to various fruits will not be revealed until June. The blossoms on apple trees may survive, but the stem holding the fruit may have had the life chilled out of it, thus causing unripe fruit to fall from the tree. Strawberries were hard hit, said the county agent. Early cabbage and tomatoes set out in gardens did not withstand the attack of frost.

NAZIMOVA IN "THE HEART OF A CHILD"

Circus in Town

"The Little Clown" should appeal to all classes of playgoers—and to scores of people who do not ordinarily attend the theatre at all. It will attract those who have fond memories of youthful days at the circus; it will fascinate the children with its visioning of clowns, bareback riders on real animals—camels, elephants, monkeys, bears, coyotes, etc.

And certainly as "The Little Clown," Mary Miles Minter has one of the most delightfully entertaining roles of her long and successful career before the camera.

It will continue at the Lyceum tonight only.

Barrels of Liquid Soap Conceal 21 Gallons Alcohol

Minneapolis, May 18—Clever new methods of transporting liquor in defiance of federal regulations were disclosed yesterday when Paul D. Keller, federal prohibition officer, confiscated 21 one gallon cans of alcohol found in the garage of William Heeney, 3829 Columbus Ave. Heeney will be arraigned late today before United States Commissioner Neil M. Cronin, charged with illegal possession of alcohol.

The gallon cans were shipped to Minneapolis from Chicago, carefully packed in three barrels containing liquid linseed oil soap. Seven of the gallon tins were packed in each barrel, carefully braced to avoid detection through the tin containers bumping the sides of the barrels. The slopping of the liquid soap in the barrels was depended upon to disguise the "glurg" of the alcohol, which has been the means of detecting many shipments made in defiance of prohibition regulation.

Heeney claims that he had rented the garage to another man and knew nothing of the alcohol or the purpose for which it was shipped to Minneapolis. He also denied ownership of a car which was in the garage with the alcohol when it was seized. The car is also being held by the authorities, who will start procedings to confiscate it.

U. S. Tells Bolsheviki Recognition Impossible

Washington, May 18—Definite though informal notification has been served on soviet Russia by the state department that so long as Americans are held prisoners in Russia there exists no chance of the recognition of the soviet government in any form by the United States.

The exact nature of the new communication was not revealed, but it has been intimated that it was made indirectly, either through British or Red Cross channels and could leave no doubt now in the minds of soviet officials as to the attitude of the United States.

It was declared that so long as Americans were held prisoners in Russia, no agent or representative of the soviets could come within hailing distance of the United States, that until the Americans were released, further negotiations direct or indirect were useless.

Law Demands Third Wife

(By United Press)

Wethersfield, Conn., May 19—The hanging of Elwood B. Wade, scheduled for tonight, will be the third death to result from a man's wild infatuation for another's wife.

When the youthful milk wagon driver became unduly attentive to the fair Mrs. Ethel Hutchins Nott in the summer of 1920, there was no shadow of the impending tragedy. Both principals apparently lived happily with their respective families in their homes in Bridgeport. Mrs. Nott is 30; Wade 23. The latter has two children, Gertrude 5, and Elbert 3, and Mrs. Nott had two children, George 5, and Mildred 3.

The first death was that of George B. Nott, gambler by profession, who was attacked while sleeping in the attic of his home and later killed in the struggle. A heavy piece ofpipe, a carving knife and a revolver were used. The persons who committed this murder were, according to testimony at the trial, Elwood B. Wade and John E. Johnston, who was employed by Wade on the latter's milk route.

The second death was that or Johnston's aged mother, who died February 28 of a broken heart.

And the end is not yet. When Mrs. Nott stands trial she will be faced by Homer S. Cummings, state's attorney and former chairman of the democratic national committee, and the man instrumental in sending Wade to the death house.

Johnston, it was believed, may escape with a light sentence for his part in assisting the prosecution in Wade's trial. This 20-year-old youth was the first to break down and tell police of the murder.

The murder of Nott was carefully planned, and deliberately and methodically consummated. None of the principals with the exception of Johnston, appeared unduly excited when committing the deed, testimony at Wade's trial revealed. A player piano, with a roll of jazz music on it, was played to drown the sounds of the struggle.

On Sunday morning, August 29, George Nott came home after being out all night, slapped his wife's face, went up to the attic and to bed. Mrs. Nott called Wade on the telephone.

Summoning his hired man, Johnston, and getting a heavy piece of pipe, the two men drove to the Wade home. Mrs. Nott admitted them, and the pair crept up the stairs to the attic after shedding their shoes and stockings. Raising his heavy pipe Wade struck Nott five times over the head. Nott awoke, screaming and grappled with his assailant. Wade then fired twice. Mrs. Nott emerged from an inner room and handed Wade a huge carving knife, it was testified at the trial. Physicians said they found 17 knife wounds in the slain man's body.

That night Wade and Johnston hauled the trunk to a swamp in Easton, 10 miles away, packed it with stones, and sank it. The body was found two days later. Johnston confessed, implicating Wade and Mrs. Nott. The trial opened December 30 and lasted several weeks. Despite an insanity plea, first degree murder was the verdict. An appeal was immediately taken, but the state supreme court of errors in an opinion by Justice Wheeler on May 4, declared the court could find no error.

Friday and Saturday-- DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS in "When the Clouds Roll By"

AMUSEMENTS

Douglas Fairbanks

Since Douglas Fairbanks, associated with Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin and D. W. Griffith, decided to produce independently a year ago, each forthcoming announcement from this "Big Four" is greeted with much enthusiasm. The United Artists Corporation from their New York office wired the New Park theatre today that "Doug's" next production, "When the Clouds Roll By," will be ready for exhibition here on Friday.

"When the Clouds Roll By" is the most spectacular and interesting production in which the inimitable Fairbanks has ever appeared.

In this production "Doug" has broken away from the traditional screen stories and has produced a riproaring comedy on entirely different lines. The basic principle underlying this feature is quite new to motion pictures and incidentally very daring from the point of view of the accepted screen limitations and ideas. The old adage "it can't be done" has no terrors or difficulties fo this star "Doug" will have surrounding him in the cast of this picture a number of new faces in Fairbanks productions, but every one of them a well known personage.

Shirley Mason Coming

Winsome little Shirley Mason is coming to the Lyceum theatre for one day Friday in her latest and what is declared to be her most beautiful William Fox Production, "Wing Toy." This story was written by the well-known author Pearl Doles Bell, who was responsible for both "Her Elepahnt Man" and "Loves's Harvest," two stories in which Miss Mason achieved marked success.

BRAINERD TO HONOR HEROES

Memorial Day Committee Plans Near Completion, Governor Preus Issues Proclamation

THE MARCH TO THE CEMETERY

Rev. Hans J. Wolner to Deliver Memorial Day Address, Exercises to be at Cemetery

Brainerd will honor heroes of three wars, living and dead, with Memorial Day exercises at Evergreen cemetery and should the weather be inclement, the exercises will take place at the New Park theatre, May 30.

Plans for the annual observance are nearing completion by the Memorial Day general committee. The effort this year has been made to have the whole city represented in this tribute to the heroes of war and with that end in view the committee invited mayor and city council, all associations of soldiers and sailors, nurses, relief corps, schools, fraternal, union and civic associations, Chamber of Commerce, municipal band, etc., to join in the observance of the day.

In a proclamation Governor Preus urges that citizens in every community in Minnesota make certain that flowers or some other suitable mark of recognition be placed on the grave of every soldier as tribute to his sacrifice under the Stars and Stripes for the cause of humanity.

The suggestion has been made by sailors that flowers be thrown on the Mississippi river during special exercises in honor of the sailor dead.

Rev. Hans J. Wolner, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, will be the principal speaker at the exercises. Frank R. N. Anderson is marshal of the day.

The parade will start at 9 o'clock from the heart of the business district, the parade forming on South Sixth street extending south from Front. The parade route is the one followed for years, following where possible cement paved streets.

Arrangements are being completed for the firing squad, buglers, community singing, etc. ,and the complete program will soon be announced. Supt. W. C. Cobb has charge of the program of speaking.

Preus' Proclamation

The governor's proclamation reads:

"More than half a century ago the custom was adopted of setting aside one day each year on which all people might lay aside their daily tasks to pay tribute to those who had participated in the war for the preservation of the Union and to decorate the graves of those who died in the defense of their country.

"Two wars in humanity's cause, in which our country has later participated, have made us realize more fully the importance of the sacrifices made by our soldiers in the Civil war. With the Union preserved, our country has become a most important factor in the constant world struggle for liberty and democracy.

"Now, therefore, I, J. A. O. Preus, governor of the state of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim and set aside Monday, May 30th, as Memorial Day and urge its observance throughout the state.

"Each year the number of our patriotic dead grows larger. Let us see to it, nevertheless, that none is forgotten, but that some flower, flag, or other mark of recognition be placed on every single grave. Let us also see to it that due tribute is paid to the soldiers and sailors still living, whether of the Civil war, the Spanish American war or the world war, that every provision is made for the comfort of those among them who are aged and infirm or those who are suffering from wounds, and illness contracted in the Nation's service and let us, by all means, in our public exercises on that day, give full recognition to the magnitude of the accomplishments of our patriots in all our country's wars."

ANNUAL FARM PICNIC PLANS BEING MADE

The annual picnic of the Crow Wing County Farm Bureau will be held sometime in June and locations are now being considered by the committee in charge of the arrangements. Bay Lake, east of Brainerd, and Lum park in Brainerd were the scene of two picnics in the past.

Picture Featuring Memorial Day to be Shown at First Methodist Church Friday

The Methodist church will close its showing of community night pictures Friday by showing the greatest picture they have yet announced. Particulars are given in their advertisement.

The church has not gone into the picture business to compete with the commercial movie but to show a good clean lot of pictures to educate the community to a better class of films than the public in general demands.

This picture was selected as seasonable as Memorial day is but ten days away and the church relies upon liberal offerings for expenses.

Missionary Society

The Womans Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wagner, 611 Holly street at 8 o'clock. Members are urged to be present. Gentlemen are invited.

When Jack fell down and broke his crown,
He also wrenched his spine;
And from that spill upon the hill,
One leg was out of line.

His HEART was sad, his STOMACH bad,
His KIDNEYS, too, were shirking;
But the Chiro quick, gave Jack a lick,
That put him back to working.

"The Highest Law"
Community Night
Methodist Episcopal Church

Just suppose that YOU, Mr. Man, had received word that your mother was ill, dying perhaps. Permission to visit her was refused you and to go without it meant death. What would you do?

To do as his heart bade him he chanced the displeasure of some of the nation's greatest statesmen. But he was only living up to his motto of "Be sure you are right, then go ahead."

The harassed and worried Secretary of War saw in Bobby Goodwin, only another military prisoner. But there was another who reasoned with his heart and who saw a young boy driven desperate by the force of tragic circumstances.

If you are an American who enjoys the tragic in that greatest of all Americans, Abraham Lincoln, see the Selznick picture featuring Ralph Ince at the Methodist church Friday. Three showings, 4:15, 7:30 and 9:00. Come out and see it, and prepare your thoughts for Memorial Day. This is a part of the church's contribution to the community by showing high class pictures. All are invited to attend.

A liberal offering is asked for expenses.

WHAT CAUSES GAS ON THE STOMACH?

It is caused by fermenting sour waste matter in the intestines. This old, foul matter should be thoroughly cleaned out with simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing old accumulated matter you never thought was in your system. Adler-i-ka relieves ANY CASE gas on the stomach. EXCELLENT for sour stomach and chronic constipation. Guards against appendicitis. Johnson's Pharmacy.

Buy Your Coal Direct From Mine—Big Saving

The high cost of coal is a thing of the past! At least, there are no complaints on this account—since the removal of government restrictions—among those who have learned how to buy coal. The way to buy coal is to get it direct from the mines. This saves several middlemen's profits. It saves hauling expeness. Anyone can now buy at mine prices, whether a carload buyer or one who uses only ten or fifteen tons a year. This has been made possible through a plan evolved by a large and old-established concern, THE BERNICE COAL COMPANY, with main offices at 538 Como Building, Chicago.

This company has thousands of customers in various sections of the United States who receive all of their coal direct from the mines. These customers are pleased not only because of the many dollars they save every year, but also because of the quality of coal they are getting. Many write that they never before had coal that makes so little dust, that burns so well, leaving so few ashes. If you are a coal user—whether you use hard or soft coal, much or little—it will be greatly to your advantage to write the Bernice Coal Co. at once for prices, stating kind and quantity of coal you use.
